1. The Air Force Reserve has three exciting educational assistance programs that are available for eligible Reserve members. The existing programs can be of tremendous benefit to you in your military and private vocation.

a. For Selected Reserve (SR) members: The initial program, the Montgomery GI Bill for Selected Reserve (MGIB-SR) has educational benefits for those qualifying up to $10,368.

b. For SR members: If you are in one of the critical AFSCs you can also be eligible for the MGIB-SR Kicker Program qualifying up to $12,600.

c. For SR and Participating Individual Ready Reserve members: AFRC's Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES) Program provides 75% tuition reimbursement for qualified graduate degree programs and 100% tuition reimbursement for qualified undergraduate degree programs; 100% reimbursement for certification tests; and free CLEP/DSST testing for Reserve spouses.

2. Information about both benefits is attached and should be reviewed very carefully. If you would like to get a jump-start on your eligibility and your future, give us a call now!
